

A Children's Call for Hope

FOSTERING HOPE
AND EMPATHY IN A TIME
OF GLOBAL CRISIS

This is a Children's Call for Hope

We invite you to join us in an exciting new campaign, launched in celebration of World Children's Day on November 20, that will give voice to the HOPE felt by children around the world.

Through the voices of children and young people, we hope to stimulate the imagination of all of us who need HOPE in these troubled times.

Finding hope in children's creativity

The Children's Call for Hope campaign invites children from early childhood years through middle school to respond to the question: "Where do you find HOPE?"

Children from around the world are encouraged to send in their responses to OneShared.World's IDEA School team—including pictures, poems, stories and animations.

Welcoming every child's voice

We are reaching out to public and private schools, children in refugee status, youngsters from all faith, ethnic, tribal and national origins. There are no "wrong" answers and all responses will be shared and made easily accessible through our dedicated IDEA School Instagram wall and later the OneShared.World website.

Help us bring their voices to the world

Our diverse team, whose members include college students and experienced educators from around the world, believes that education is the foundation of empathy and understanding for others.

Through the Children's Call for Hope campaign, as well as our "Hope Talks" Conversation Guides and Deep Dive tool kits, we seek to inspire users to think critically about their place in our world and reflect on the ways we collectively can achieve a brighter, better future.

Find directions on how to make submissions on the next page

We look forward to you joining us and sharing hope at a time when the world desperately needs it!

We can't wait to see your submissions!

With hope,

The OneShared.World IDEA School team
